1. Read the passage given below and answer the following questions that follow:

TENALIRAMA AND TWO THIEVES

ONE summer night, when Tenalirama and his wife were about to sleep, they felt the presence of some people outside. Tenalirama immediately felt they were planning to rob his house.

He thought of a plan and said loudly to his wife, "My dear I heard that some notorious thieves are roaming in our neighborhood. So let us hide all our jewelery and money that we have in the well."

A little later, Tenalirama and his wife came out with a big trunk, and dropped into the well. Then they went back inside the house and pretended to go off to sleep.

The Thieves waited sometime, and then started drawing water from the well. The thieves kept drawing water for the entire night in the hope to get the wealth. Towards the daybreak they managed to pull out the trunk. With eager eyes they opened the trunk. But when it was opened they were shocked: the trunk contained only stones.

They understood that it was Tenalirama's plan to outsmart them. Tenalirama came out from the house and said, 'Thank you friends, for watering our plants. I must pay you for your labour.'
